

OFFICE OF PUBLIC ENGAGEMENT

PENNSYLVANIA OFFICE OF ATTORNEY GENERAL

The Office of Public Engagement (OPE) serves as the educational outreach division of the Pennsylvania Office of Attorney General.

Through a wide range of programs that are engaging and rooted in public service, our team shares actionable information that helps people recognize risks, make informed choices, and protect themselves and those they care about.

FREE NON SCHOOL-RELATED PRESENTATIONS

OPE offers free educational presentations for community organizations, businesses, senior groups, faith-based organizations, and other adult audiences. These programs provide practical tools to recognize warning signs, avoid common traps, and know where to turn for help.

Presentation topics include:

- Scam and fraud prevention
- Identity theft
- Home improvement scams
- Romance and relationship scams
- Fraud targeting veterans
- Caregiver abuse and neglect
- Senior bullying and social mistreatment
- Online pharmacy risks and medication safety

Bring a free presentation to your organization!

Dave Sunday
Attorney General

FREE SCHOOL-RELATED PRESENTATIONS

OPE offers engaging, age-appropriate presentations for students, educators, school staff, parents, and caregivers. Programs are designed to support healthy decision-making, student safety, and positive school communities while complementing existing educational initiatives.

Presentation topics include:

- Bullying prevention
- Digital citizenship & online safety
- Drug and alcohol prevention
- Vaping prevention

Learn more or schedule a presentation

COMMUNITY DRUG ABUSE PREVENTION GRANTS

Community Drug Abuse Prevention (CDAP) grants support prevention and early intervention initiatives that educate youth and families, build healthy coping and decision-making skills, and strengthen community support to prevent and reduce substance misuse and abuse. For eligibility information and application details, visit attorneygeneral.gov/cdap.

 833-OAG-4YOU

 publicengagement@attorneygeneral.gov

 www.attorneygeneral.gov